Wolves Big Man Signs Pro Contract

Björn Schoo came in as a relative unknown. Even fellow Germans attending the Court Side Pro Camp weren't really sure who the 7-0 big man was. After his first game this past Friday night in Frankfurt everybody knew though. Björn Schoo started his career in Freiburg in the German 2nd division. He then left for Northern State University and even there he played in relative anonymity playing limited minutes. Although he produced good numbers per minute played, it wasn't until this past weekend when basketball playing Europe got to see the potential Björn has. With his 7-foot body he is extremely mobile, agile, quick and fast. In addition he combines solid post-moves with good rebounding and a type of intensity on the defensive end rarely seen among big men. Aigaleo, who just promoted to the Greek first division and attended the camp in Frankfurt, was convinced after the first two games. Today terms were agreed upon and Björn Schoo signed with Aigaleo where he will be able to show his ability at one of the highest European levels.
